

SUMMARY

A Fresher Developer with lot of capabilities to learn and grow. I received hands-on experience in creating an application with HTML and CSS, Javascript, Bootstrap as well group projects including assisting during the design of user interface for a project. My problem-solving skills, ability to work in a team and pick up new technologies quickly are some of my best traits. If you need someone who is organized, detail-oriented and can communicate effectively But I take great joy in satisfying my curiosity and possess the capability to understand tough ideas. I am self-assured that I can use what clarification note: or simply my ease at quantifying uncertain scenarios to improve software product development.
